Ma'ot Hitin Funds Greatly Appreciated

Rabbi Nadich has received letters from the organizations which received funds from our Ma'ot Hitin Passover Appeal expressing deep felt thanks for the assistance of our congregation in their work.

The president of the Joint Passover Association of the City of New York, in a letter to Rabbi Nadich said: "...your contribution will not only enable us to reach and help more people than last year but also to raise our grant to them. You will brighten Pesach for many and show our needy that there is still a community who listens to and cares for them..."

The executive director of the New York Board of Rabbis stated: "...your gracious and ready response is deeply appreciated by the New York Board of Rabbis and by the numerous hospital patients and Jewish correctional inmates who are provided with Passover food and religious services throughout the eight day festival of Passover..."

The director of the United Jewish Council of the East Side, Inc. wrote: "...thank you for your generous contribution to our Pesach Campaign. The UJC (sponsored) Community Sedorim at three locations, serving over 300 people at each seder. We also ... provide(d) solo meals to 130 homebound elderly and supplemental food packages to over 1000 poor families and individuals. None of the above would have been possible without your generous contribution..."

The executive director of the Crown Heights Jewish Community Council said in his letter: "On behalf of the hundreds of poor who (were) helped through your kindness, thank you for your contribution in response to our ... appeal. Our success in meeting some of the needs of our underprivileged clients in Crown Heights, a designated primary poverty area, as well as those needy

Service On Tisha B'Av Wednesday, August 13

From sundown August 13 to sundown August 14, Tisha B'Av — the ninth of Av — is observed by Jews worldwide as a day of remembrance of the many tragic events from the Jewish historical past.

At Park Avenue Synagogue, the service marking Tisha B'Av will take place in the Sanctuary on Wednesday, August 13 at 8 p.m. Rabbi Harlan J. Wechsler and Cantor David Lefkowitz will conduct this emotion laden service, accompanied by the Synagogue Choir.

The reflective mood of Tisha B'Av is clearly portrayed in the liturgical poetry recited during the service. These haunting dirges are called kinot. The beauty of these kinot is brought to life through musical settings by the most distinguished synagogue composers of European Jewry, who were inspired to compose the heartfelt, soul-stirring a cappella music sung during this service.

Congregants and their friends, who are home at this time of summer, are encouraged to participate in this unique service, when the lights of the Sanctuary are dimmed, candles are lit and the events of the past are recalled through the reading of the Book of Lamentations, selections of appropriate poetry and the singing of liturgical music.

High School Graduates Thirteen During Services On Shavuot

The congregation takes great pride in sharing with the parents and families of our graduates the accomplishments of this excellent group of young men and women.

Mazal Tov to:

Debbie Abramson (Yale)!
Shari Batt (Queens College)!
Jerome Benveniste (Harvard)!
Jonathan Chernow (Tufts)!
Josh Davis (Tulane)!
Abigail Frost (Macalister College)!
John Greenstein (Wesleyan)!
Amy Harmon (University of Michigan)!
Barry Levine (Wesleyan)!
Raphael Morris (Brandeis)!
Alison Pollet (University of Chicago)!
Abigail Revasch (Northwestern)!
Katie Roiphe (Harvard)!

We wish our graduates continued success in their college careers and look forward to welcoming them back, upon their return, to their extended family — Park Avenue Synagogue.

The congregation is invited to attend the High School Graduation Ceremonies which will take place during services on the first day of Shavuot, Friday, June 13, beginning at 9:15 a.m. and then to join the graduates and their families at a festive kiddush, sponsored by Parents Association, following the services.

Good and Plenty

Usually we announce forthcoming events in the BULLETIN. Rarely do we report on events which have taken place. But recently at a Shabbat morning service we shared in a very moving experience which was sparked by the wonderful students in our High School.

The congregation very wisely decided to honor these students for their ongoing program of help for the needy of our community through the Food Pantry. At their own initiative these students, under the leadership of Amy Harmon and Katie Roiphe, decided to put into practice what they have learned in our school. They know that Judaism teaches us not to separate ourselves from the community, but rather to become involved in improving the quality of life in our neighborhood.

Every Friday afternoon, for almost two years now, bags of food are distributed by them in the loggia of our building to those in need of food, regardless of race or religion. It is an uplifting experience to see these young people helping their fellow human beings. They do all this with dignity, with understanding and with friendliness. No one is treated with condescension or disdain, but rather with kindness and with heart.

We ourselves live in a society of plenty. Therefore we have to do good, helping those who have not been so blessed. It was an inspiring experience for all of us in the congregation to see these eager young people so committed to helping those who need help. They understand the true meaning of performing a mitzvah, that the reward for the mitzvah is the mitzvah itself.

Let us take pride in these, our children, and join them in building a better society in which justice and kindness will prevail.

— Judah Nadich

Pirkei Avot Studied
Throughout The Summer

It is a tradition to begin the study of Pirkei Avot (The Ethics of the Fathers) after Passover and continue to study this famous tractate of ethical ideas during the six Shabbats following Passover in preparation for Shavuot, the holiday which celebrates the receiving of the Torah.

But, over time, the study of Perek became so popular that Jews continued to read and study this short but pithy volume weekly throughout the summer until Rosh Hashanah. So it is at Park Avenue Synagogue.

The congregation and friends are cordially invited to join in the study of Perek with Rabbi Wechsler every Saturday afternoon at 5 p.m. in the Appleman Chapel. One or two ethical thoughts will be examined each week — in English.

Congregation Asked To Cheer Salute To Israel Parade

Everyone loves a parade and the Salute to Israel Parade is no exception.

The parade will begin at 12 noon on Sunday, June 8 and members of the congregation are exhorted to come out in great numbers to cheer the participants in the parade and especially the Park Avenue Synagogue contingent.

Under the direction of its student chairperson, Calanit Dovore, and assisted by Parents Association, this is the first year in many that Park Avenue Synagogue is participating in the line of march.

There is still time for students who wish to march in the parade to make this wish known. Call the High School Office today if you wish to participate. Volunteers are being sought by Parents Association to help with a myriad of details. Please call Carol Weber, 534-4561, to volunteer your services. The more the merrier . . .

See you at the parade!

Shabbat Lunch Planned For July 19

Following services on Shabbat, July 19, the Shabbat Dinner Committee, under the co-chairmanship of Nancy Treiger and Miriam Wallerstein, invites the congregation to Shabbat Lunch.

It has become a tradition at Park Avenue Synagogue for the congregation to come together once over the summer, after services, to enjoy a traditional Shabbat Lunch.

If you are home at this time, please come and join your fellow congregants, sharing the joy of Shabbat together. Watch for your invitation in the mail, but save the date now — July 19.

Hebrew Crash Course Guarantees Success

Are you not too familiar or comfortable with the High Holy Day prayerbook because you can't read Hebrew? Then plan now to attend a guaranteed crash course taught by master teacher, Vivian Frankel!

Mrs. Finkel promises that anyone who attends the eight sessions of this crash course will be able to follow the Hebrew text of the High Holy Day prayerbook.

The course begins on Monday, September 15 and will meet for four days that week and four days the following week (September 15, 16, 17, 18 and September 22, 23, 24, 25) from 7:30 — 9 p.m.

What better way to prepare for the High Holy Days than to participate in this class taught by Mrs. Finkel! Join it; you'll love it!!

This class meets under the aegis of the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies.

Rabbi Wechsler Invites College Students To Study Talmud With Him

College students, home for the summer holiday, are welcome to study the Talmud with Rabbi Wechsler. Four sessions are planned, all on Wednesdays: July 9 and 23 and August 6 and 20. Time: 8 p.m. Place: Rabbi Wechsler's Office.

To study Talmud is to enter another world. And, better still, it is not necessary to have any prior knowledge to enter this world. Also, it should be noted that an added bonus for our returning college students is to make new friends as well as to renew old acquaintanceships — here in the city.

If you have — or if you know of — a young man or woman home from college this summer, encourage them to meet with Rabbi Wechsler and friends and to study Talmud. It's fun!

The congregation thanks Mr. and Mrs. Burton Kossoff for their support of the college student program through the Stephanie Lynn Kossoff Fund. Throughout the school year, our college students receive holiday packages sent to them by the College Liason Committee accompanied by appropriate messages from Rabbi Wechsler.

Club 87 Plans Summer Activities

Calling all Jewish singles 21-31! Club 87 will continue to hold its popular Coffee Houses on the second Wednesday of June and July, June 11 and July 9 beginning at 7:15 p.m. on the Lower Level. In August, plans are being made for a special event.

As the word spreads about Club 87, more and more young men and women are coming to the Club 87 Coffee Houses to enjoy the low key atmosphere, the good food and music, and the company of one another. They know that Club 87 is the place to be the second Wednesday of the month.

If you are not as yet on the mailing list and wish to be, call the synagogue, 369-2600, during business hours and ask to be placed on the mailing list. In this way, you will be kept informed about the Club 87 Coffee Houses and other planned activities of Club 87.

PAS Singles (30-50) Hold Rooftop Party June 19

On Thursday evening, June 19 at 8 p.m., the PAS Singles Group (30-50) will hold its annual Beginning of Summer Rooftop Party.

All single Jewish men and women, age 30-50, are invited to join the members of PAS Singles for this evening of fun, food, wine and dancing to live music.

Cost per person is $20 admission at the door.

The Annual Report of the Chairman to the Congregation

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Welcome to the 104th annual congregational meeting of the membership of Park Avenue Synagogue. I would like to review with you some of the highlights of this past year.

Membership: Our membership now numbers 1250 families, an all-time high. In November we hosted a champagne reception for our 100 new families and we thank Hanna Lyttle for chairing the evening.

Congregants occupy virtually every seat for High Holiday services and there is a waiting list for membership seating.

Services: We continue to enjoy large attendance on Shabbat mornings celebrating a Bar/Bat Mitzvah almost weekly. Our Rabbis, Cantor, Assistant Cantor, Organist and Choir, Head Usher and his committee of ushers contribute greatly to the beauty and dignity of our services.

Our Shabbat "child-minding" program continued for children ages 18 months to 7 years.

Summer Shabbat services, conducted by Rabbi Wechsler and Assistant Cantor Kula, were — as in previous years — well attended, as was our Tisha B'Av observance which was led by Rabbi Wechsler, Cantor Lefkowitz and Mark Kula.

The telecast of our Selihot Service by ABC was aired coast-to-coast and we thank Rabbi Nadich and Cantor Lefkowitz for that profoundly moving experience.

The High Holiday services were truly inspirational, conducted by Rabbi Nadich, Rabbi Wechsler, Cantor Lefkowitz and Assistant Cantor Kula. Once again, the ushers did an outstanding job in helping to maintain the dignity of the services and we congratulate Mal Eisenberg and his committee of ushers on a job well done.

The Daily Minyan at 5:45 p.m. continued under the able leadership of Philip Swartz, to whom we extend our grateful appreciation.

Our Morning Minyan, held on Thursdays at 7:30 a.m. is well attended and we extend our special thanks to Anita Gluck, our Thursday morning shamus.

The Daily Minyan meets year-round and we ask for everyone's continued participation in this most important mitzvah. It is vital for the synagogue to maintain a daily minyan and I invite and encourage us all to attend as often as possible at 5:45 p.m.

On Saturday, March 15, we began to use a new siddur, Sim Shalom, which was recommended by our clergy and Ritual Committee.

Events: Our Sukkah was decorated once again under the direction of Parents Association vice-president Judy Katz — this year twice because a severe rainstorm blew down the first Sukkah — and the meals in the Sukkah were served under the supervision of Parents Association President Joan Schreiber.

We honored three deserving members of the congregation on Simhat Torah: Gershon Kekst, Hatan Torah; Joann Abrams Rosoff, Kalah Mafteret; David Druckman, Hatan Bereshit.

The monthly Friday night Shabbat dinners continued under the co-chairmanship of Naney Treiger and Miriam Wallerstein, ably assisted by their large and enthusiastic committee. Over 600 people attended these dinners, which will continue to be held next year.

There was a special music service in the Fall and a Liturgical Service of special merit in the Spring, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. George M. Shapiro. Cantor Lefkowitz sang magnificently, accompanied by the Synagogue Concert Choir under the direction of Abraham Kaplan, with Neil Robinson at the organ.

500 people came to the children's parties at Hanukkah and Purim. The adult Hanukkah party was attended by several hundred congregants. It featured delicious food and wonderful entertainment.

The annual Shabbaton, held in January, was co-chaired by Hindy Kiseh and Alan Levine. Dr. Yosef H. Yerushalmi, a renowned scholar, delivered the Dorothy Tager Lectures on the subject of "Underground Judaism — The Religion of the Marranos" and "Spain from the Early 19th Century to Today". There were more than 200 people in attendance both on Friday evening and for lunch on Shabbat afternoon.

The two sedarim were a complete sellout. I want to thank Rabbi Nadich, Rabbi Wechsler, Cantor Lefkowitz, Mark Kula and Neil Robinson for a beautiful and meaningful Passover experience in the synagogue.

The annual dinner benefiting the Jewish Theological Seminary will be held on Wednesday evening, May 28. This will be a very special occasion, honoring Rabbi Nadich upon the 50th year of his ordination from the Jewish Theological Seminary. Chancellor of the Seminary Gerson D. Cohen will be the guest speaker. There is still time to make your reservations by calling the Seminary office.

Schools: We acknowledge with special thanks the educational commitment of Edith Paul, Principal of the Early Childhood Center; Rahel Bloch, Principal of the Primary and Elementary School; and Rabbi Wechsler and Larry Zelnick, Director and Principal of the High School, who together strive for the excellence in education which has made our school the best in New York City. Our Nursery School has increased its enrollment to full capacity and has taken its place among the finest of its kind in the city.

We welcome Dr. Livia Straus who will be the Principal of our High School next year and we look forward to her long association with us.

In addition, I wish to thank Eleanor Frommer and Alan Levine, co-chairpersons of the School Board, for their leadership of this all-important committee.

Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies: Under the direction of Rabbi Harlan J. Wechsler, and chaired by Dr. Samuel C. Klagsbrun, the Sherr Institute has had a most successful year. Highlighting the year was the Sherr Lecture delivered by Elie Wiesel on April first to a full sanctuary. We thank Mr. and Mrs. Abraham I. Sherr for sponsoring this event and the lavish reception that followed.

Food Pantry: One of the continuing outstanding achievements of our High School students is the Food Pantry which now feeds more than 70 neighborhood families a week. We are proud of our High School students and also thank the many congregants who have funded and continue to fund this worthwhile project. Saturday, April 26 was Food Pantry Shabbat at Park Avenue Synagogue and the congregation took this opportunity to express its appreciation to our High School students.

Arms: I am happy to report some of the highlights of the programs and events sponsored by the 'arms' of the synagogue this year.

The Sisterhood, under the leadership of its president Hanna Lyttle, has operated the Gift Shop, held a series of monthly meetings with excellent speakers and was hostess to an outstanding program to which the congregation came to hear Mayor Ed Koch "Meet The People". In addition, the financial support which the Sisterhood renders to the synagogue is invaluable.

The Men's Club, under the direction of its president Herbert Feiwel, sponsored programs of community interest, Hanukkah and Passover parties for the elderly members of Project EZRA and open meetings with noted speakers such as the actor Robert Clary and cartoonist Bill Hoest. Dr. Jerry Goodman, executive director of the National Conference on Soviet Jewry, was the guest speaker at the Men's Club Shabbat. Men's Club also sponsored the Sunday Brunch preceding the March for Soviet Jewry.

The Parents Association, led by its president Joan Schreiber, sponsored meals in the Sukkah, a Book Fair, parents meetings on topics of interest to them, a Passover candy and wine sale, as well as added tangible enrichments to our school program.

The Women's Evening Group, co-presidents Elaine Prince and Ann Eisenberg directing, held several congregational meetings on topics of current interest, pot luck suppers and trips to places of Jewish interest in New York City. Eugenia Zukerman was guest speaker at the Women's Evening Group Shabbat Service. At Passover time, the group held a successful flowering plant sale.

Our singles groups are growing: Park Avenue Synagogue Singles, for single men and women age 30-50, under the direction of Beverly Levine, Jeffrey Fine and Sylvia Berg and Club 87, for single men and women age 21-31, sponsored by the Women's Evening Group. We commend these groups for their efforts to reach out and serve the single community with programs and events of interest to them.

The Young Couples League, led by Sandy and Jonathan Merrill, held many social programs and have increased membership substantially. We thank Sandy and Jonathan for their efforts.

Other Business: We continue to make important improvements in our building. A new sound system was installed in the sanctuary and we are currently installing a new speaker system there as well.

We have ordered a new electronic organ for our sanctuary which will be installed in time for the Annual Report

High Holidays. I wish to thank Arnold L. Sabin and his committee, Cantor David Lefkowitz and our organist Neil Robinson for a full year's effort leading to its purchase.

On the financial front, we are pleased to report once again a balanced budget without a dues increase. Our cash flow problems of several years ago have improved significantly as a result of the growth of our membership, generosity of our members and cost controls.

Of prime importance last year and for the future is your continued support of our Yom Kippur Appeal, which is our only major fund raising effort. Last year we had 50% participation and topped our previous high, but we hope to do better.

Our Endowment Fund also grew primarily from the sale of Memorial Windows. An endowment fund is vital to protect against extraordinary needs and the unknowns of the future. We plan to continue to augment this fund.

The Evelyn J. and Joseph I. Lubin Parish House Fund was aided by generous contributions by Barbara Goldsmith, Frank Perry and an anonymous benefactor and enabled us to purchase an apartment at 1040 Park Avenue. This apartment will be occupied by Rabbi and Mrs. Nadich during their retirement, thus freeing 993 Park Avenue for our new Rabbi.

For as long as I can remember, Park Avenue Synagogue has been blessed with a dedicated group of officers. We owe Duke Usdan, our able president, who has been of invaluable assistance to me, and all the officers a vote of thanks for their many hours, particularly at our Thursday morning meetings, and for their concern and input in helping to grapple with a myriad of problems during the past year. Thanks also are extended to George M. Shapiro and Joel J. Cohen for their valuable help.

Most of all we are indebted to Barrie Modlin, our superb Executive Director, for his untiring efforts. It is hard to conceive that there is a better run synagogue in this universe. I would also like to thank Wendy Fialkoff for assisting Barrie and doing such a fine job.

We face a challenging task in the coming year in the selection of a successor to our beloved Rabbi. With your continued support, I am certain that we will make the right choice and that Park Avenue Synagogue will continue to flourish and remain a leading force in the Jewish community.

Thank you.

— Martin J. Milston
